

Polo boys with one thing in mind: 23rd gold

Singapore's water polo team has one of the toughest tasks at the SEA Games in Laos this month - to ensure that the nation's staggering streak of 22 successive gold medals in that event is extended to 23.

It's a tough task, but fortunately, they are tough guys. The national water polo team, made up of 16 athletes and officials, left this morning for the Games.

■ FULL REPORT, SPORT PAGE B8

Singapore's water polo team comprising members (from left) Yip Renkai, Kenneth Wee, Nigel Tay, Alvin Lee, Lin Diyan, Lim Yao Xiang, Luo Nan (captain), Kelvin Ong, Terence Tan, Lin Diyang, Samuel Loh, Eugene Teo and Andy Chin have a tough task at hand, but fortunately, they are tough guys. ST PHOTO: LIM SIN THAI